

Karuna Bhavan, Bankhouse Road, Lesmahagow, Lanarkshire, ML11 0ES

Email: admin@iskconscotland.org Charity No. SC001127

Visitor Guidelines and Right of admission policy

When you visit ISKCON Scotland it's important that you preserve and respect the sanctity of this place of worship. ISKCON Scotland is the home of Lord Krishna, a place of daily worship that provides spiritual knowledge and upliftment.

Dress Code - As with most places of worship the temple residents, volunteers, guests are expected to dress modestly.

Shoes - Please remove footwear upon entering the Temple and the Kitchen. Shoe racks are provided.

Children - Children are welcome. However, children aged 14 and under must be accompanied by a responsible adult at all times.

Smoking & Alcohol - Alcoholic drinks or beverages (containing caffeine e.g. coke, tea, coffee), smoking and vaping is not permitted on ISKCON Scotland grounds or in the temple buildings or preaching events/centers.

Food - Non-vegetarian food (this includes fish, eggs, onion and garlic – or any food with these ingredients) is strictly prohibited on ISKCON Scotland grounds or in the temple buildings or preaching events/centers.

Parking - We have free car parking for our visitors while they visit the temple, no overnight parking is allowed unless using temple accommodation.

Photography / Copyrights / CCTV -

You may take photos/videos for personal use.* The Management may take photographs, video recordings and / or other monitoring that may feature visitors/ volunteers and other personnel. The copyright and all other intellectual property rights for these materials rests with the Management or such authorised third party.

CCTV cameras operate on the premises

* For non-personal use please seek permission by emailing admin@iskconscotland.org

Right of Entry - The Temple Management's goal is to ensure a safe and spiritual environment for all our guests, residents, volunteers and people in general. Entry is at management's discretion to help us maintain this. The Temple Management reserves the right to refuse admission to those who do not follow the guidelines.

Please note, overall the temple management reserves the right to entry at its own discretion.

Please note, the temple management reserves the right to amend and update the policy as it deems appropriate.